C.C.L. Unions Plan United Action In Calling Strikes

New Policy of Co-ordination Announced To Gain Demands for Wages and Hours

TORONTO, June 13 (CP).—A new policy of co-ordinated strike action by which all Canadian Congress of Labor unions will go out on strike simultaneously if individual negotiations in the unions' co-ordinated wage-hour drive break down, was predicted tonight by Alex McAuslane, vice-president of the C.C.L.

Speaking to a rally of the C.C.L. wage drive co-ordinating committee, Mr. McAuslane declared that "instead of fighting singly like the workers at Anaconda (Anaconda American Brass Co. at suburban New Toronto, where a strike is in progress), we must all hit the anvil together and go out on the picket line as one."

(If the policy he suggested is adopted, it might mean more than 100,000 workers in four major industries would walk out in simultaneous strike action within a month. Strike votes have been taken by the United Electrical Workers, the United Rubber Workers, the United Steel Workers and, Mr. McAuslane reported, negotiations for wage increases by the United Automobile Workers have "brought negative results.")

The C.C.L. vice-president held out little hope in his address for a settlement in the steel industry, where the Government has appointed Mr. Justice Wilfred Rosch as a commissioner in an attempt to reach a settlement.

"The United Steel Workers are faced with the alternative of implementing their strike vote or surrendering to the steel barons of the country," he said. The steel workers are asking for an increase of 19 1-2 cents an hour and a 40-hour week.

Mr. McAuslane also sounded a call for united action by the C.C.L. and the Trades and Labor Congress (A.F.L.).

BULLETINS

Crush Revolt

BUENOS AIRES, June 13 (AP).—A revolt in La Paz, Bolivia, against the Government of President Gualberto Villarroel was put down today. An undetermined number were killed and wounded. The unsuccessful coup was staged by a group of young civilians and army officers who used two airplanes in an effort to bomb out police headquarters in the capital.

Sabotage Charge

MONTREAL, June 13 (CP).—H. N. McMaster, president of the National Maritime Federation, said tonight he had reason to believe that the Canadian Seamen's Union plan the nation-wide sabotage of Canadian shipping and a general walk-off of seamen in July should the Dominion Government take control of shipping as a result of the current C.S.U. strike against lake ship operators.

To Become Chief

VANCOUVER, June 13 (CP).—Viscount Harold Alexander, Governor-General of Canada, has accepted the invitation of British Columbia Coast Indians to be made an honorary chief during Diamond Jubilee festivities next month. The ceremony will take place July 13.

Wheat Contract

OTTAWA, June 13 (CP).—A delegation of British experts is scheduled to arrive in Montreal by air tomorrow en route to Ottawa to confer with the Canadian Government on the possibilities of a long-term wheat contract, it was learned here tonight.

Meat, Butter Ceilings Off in U.S.

New Bill Slashes Powers of O.P.A.

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP). — The Senate tonight passed a bill slashing the Office of Price Administration to a shadow of its wartime power and taking price ceilings off such market-basket items as meat, eggs, milk, butter and chickens.

The vote was 52 to 11.

The bill, which extends the life of the diminished price control agency for one year beyond June 30, amounts to a major defeat for the administration. It goes now to the House of Representatives.

TORONTO, June 14 (Friday) (CP). —The Globe and Mail said today that an adjustment to "rescue" Canadian meat retailers from "what the Prices Board is reported to admit is an 'impossible situation'" will be made by the Dominion Government within the next two weeks.

A delegation of meat retailers conferred with Donald Gordon, Prices Board chairman, Wednesday and came away with the confident belief that action would be taken.

Girl Missing Since June 4

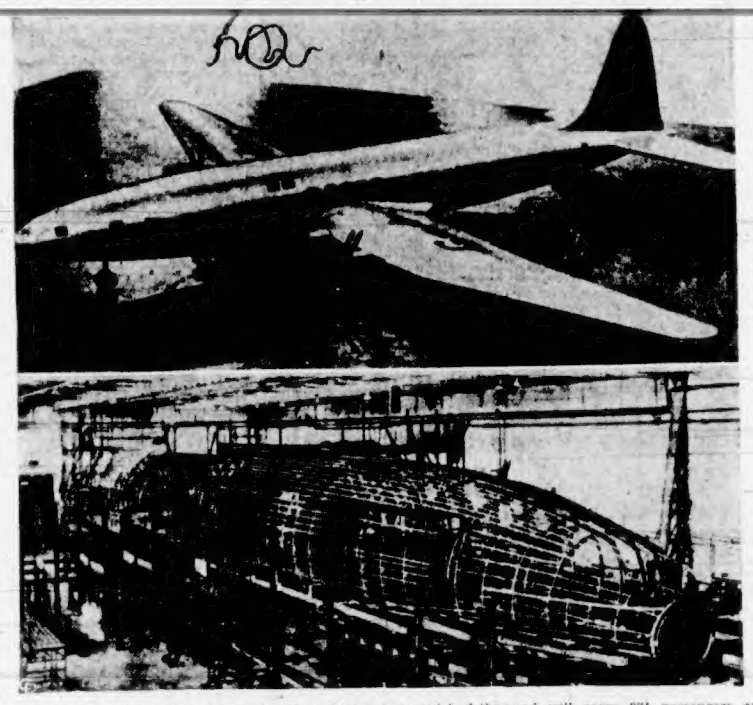
Mabel Jean Clark, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Clark, 641 Chatham Street, has been missing since about midnight on June 4, police report.

No reason has been ascribed for her disappearance.

When the girl left home she was wearing a white "shorty" coat, three-quarter length; white shoes, no stockings, and a cherry red suit. Mabel has light brown hair, is five feet three inches tall, weighs 110 pounds, has a round face and does her hair in a roll. She looks more than fifteen, according to her parents.

It is possible she is carrying a registration card and some papers belonging to an older sister. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of the girl is asked to notify police immediately.

British Raze Village to Prepare for 100-Passenger Plane



FARMS and cottages of century-old Charlton, Bristol, England, will be torn down to build runways for the 110-ton Brabazon I airliner, biggest land plane yet made in Britain. It is now in process of construction. On top is a model of the gigantic plane and below is a prototype of the plane as it grows in the works of the Bristol Aeroplane Company. It will be powered by eight engines of 2,500 h.p. each. It will have a cruising speed of 250 m.p.h. and will carry 224 passengers on short journeys, 100 on trans-Atlantic trips. The plane is 177 feet long, 52 feet high and has a wing span of 230 feet. It will have a dining room, movie room, cocktail bar, lounge and sleeping compartments.

Police Find Suspects, Stolen Loot

WINDSOR, Ont., June 13 (CP).—Police tonight recovered between $10,000 and $12,000 in United States and Canadian cash, along with some bonds on Peche Island in the Detroit River and arrested three men and a woman in their search for bandits who held up the Provincial Bank of Canada branch at nearby Tecumseh, today.

Six police forces—Tecumseh, Windsor City, Provincial, suburban Riverside, Detroit Police River Patrol and United States Coast Guard rescue ships and two airplanes—a Flying Fortress and a Catalina flying boat concentrated on the tiny island to land between 25 and 30 policemen in their search for the bank robbers.

The planes zoomed over the tree tops during the hunt and finally the fugitives were trapped at the west end of the island.

Police took into custody three men they identified as Clifford Renaud, 24; John Zero, 26, both of Windsor; Donald Loury, 31, Rouyn, Que., and a woman, Mrs. Helen Reinohe, 37, of Windsor.

There was some doubt whether four or five participated in the Tecumseh holdup.

Bank employees said four men came into the bank as it was about to close while one remained in the car. Police speculated that one of the robbers was a woman masquerading as a man. In any case, they say there is one fugitive still at large.

Police discovered the money concealed in a pillow case buried in two feet of sand about 200 yards up the beach on the north side.

Seamen's Union Accepts New Plan for Settlement

OTTAWA, June 13 (CP). — New Government proposals for settlement of the 18-day lake shipping strike today received endorsation of the Canadian Seamen's Union (T.L.C.), but decision of the operators was withheld pending a meeting to be held in Toronto Monday.

The proposals provided for immediate application to the National War Labor Board by all shipping companies for an eight-hour day, in place of 12 hours, on lake ships; re-employment of all strikers except those facing charges under the Criminal Code for strike activity and the recognition of the union by all companies in which the Labor Department found a majority of the employees were union members.

While the next step appeared to be the decision of the operators' meeting, the Government, failing acceptance by the operators, was expected either to take control of lake shipping or have those companies agreeable to the settlement formula sign it.

It was understood the 20-odd operator representatives attending today's 2½-hour session with Mr. Mitchell and his officials were divided on whether the plan should be accepted.

Last Gong Rings For Major Bowes

RUMSON, N.J., June 13 (AP). —Major Edward Bowes, famed figure in the entertainment world for many years, died here tonight. He would have been 72 tomorrow.

He had been in failing health recently.

The major, whose last big accomplishment in the entertainment field was the amateur hour he conducted on the radio, retired 13 months ago.

Closing By-Law Is Criticized

Chamber of Commerce directors have expressed objection to a civic law allowing any business to close down on hours or days agreed upon by 75 per cent of the employers in that business.

At a meeting yesterday, J. K. Hodges, manager of the Empress Hotel, informed directors he was strongly averse to the proposed city by-law which would close all barber shops in the city all day on Wednesdays.

"We must cater to the traveling public," Mr. Hodges said, "and we feel perturbed that closing of the hotel barber shop on Wednesdays would deprive the hotel of a first-class service to tourists."

"This is an extremely serious matter for Victoria," said Major H. C. Holmes, president.

"It is not our object to make a man work longer hours," said Major Holmes, "but rather to give the public service in a way which will still allow shorter hours."

He suggested a meeting be called between representatives of the Chamber and the City Council to discuss the matter.

Humbert in Spain Voices Protest

ROME, June 13 (AP).—King Humbert II charged today that the Italian Cabinet acted illegally in naming Premier Alcide de Gasperi provisional chief of state, and then flew to exile in Portugal.

Humbert's aide, Gen. Adolfo Infante, said the King had decided to abandon the country "temporarily" to avert civil war, but that he still considered himself King. Humbert's proclamation said:

"I raise my protest against the violence which has been committed—a protest made in the name of the crown and of all the people, both home and abroad, who have the right to see their destiny determined with respect for law and in a way which should dispell every doubt and every suspicion."

$44,010 in Bills Strewn on Track

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill., June 13 (AP). —About $44,010 in crisp, new bills was scattered along a railroad right-of-way today when a mail sack was sliced open by wheels of a train, but two hours later all but about $275 had been turned in by some 40 volunteer searchers.

The money had been consigned to a bank and the sack was dropped from the moving train and rolled under its wheels near this Chicago suburb.

Russians Laud Canadian Army

TORONTO, June 13 (CP).—The fine record of the Canadian army in Europe is widely known and admired in Russia, three Soviet war correspondents said today. Two of them, Ilya Ehrenburg and Maj.-Gen. Mikhail Galaktionov, said they saw the Canadians in action.

"We know the bravery of your soldiers and respect Canada as a peace-loving country," said Galaktionov, military editor of Pravda.

U.S. Begins Using Atomic Energy To Bring Better Life to Humans

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., June 13 (AP).—The United States Government swung open the gate tonight to the use of atomic energy for benefitting man instead of killing him.

Radio-active substances produced in uranium ovens where the atomic bomb was born will be distributed for the first time to schools, hospitals and laboratories in the United States only, the army's Manhattan project announced.

The new program opens the way for widespread use of substances which can be detected even though invisible and which therefore may:

1. Shed new light on processes of human life, normal and diseased;
2. Provide new information on animal and plant growth and on the way the body uses food and medicine;
3. Help mankind further in making certain products and in tapping the natural resources.

It also is possible, scientists said, that the substances may be used directly to treat disease.

Relating a story of accomplishment rivalling the dreams of the ancient alchemists, the Manhattan project gave details on the production of approximately 100 different "radio-isotopes"—radio-active forms of common and rare elements produced in the uranium chain-reacting "atom pile" at Oak Ridge.

Radio-isotopes will be used in two important ways: First, as tracer atoms or "tracers" for following the course of atoms in chemical, biological and technical processes; and possibly, after considerable research, as therapeutic agents.

Electric Firms Pledge Service

LONDON, June 13 (CP).—A five-point, five-year program was offered as a "positive alternative to nationalization" today by Britain's electric utility companies.

They would make the following "pledges" to consumers:

1. Electricity for 95 per cent of the premises in the companies' area.
2. Prices would be the lowest possible.
3. Forms of tariff would be standardized.
4. Standardization of voltages would be completed.
5. Direct current for domestic supplies would be abolished.

Predicts Loan Ratification

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP).—Prompt ratification by the United States House of Representatives of the $3,750,000,000 British loan was predicted tonight by Democrats and Republicans after the House banking committee approved it, 20 to 5.

Speaker Sam Rayburn (Democrat, Texas) told newspapermen the loan legislation, already sanctioned by the Senate, 46 to 34, "will pass the House by a comfortable margin."

I.W.A. Head Asks Operators To Use Sloan Proposals As Basis of New Negotiations

Thousands of Strikers Due Here Today To Demand Cabinet End Logging Tie-Up

A proposal to operators that both parties in the lumber strike reopen negotiations immediately was made here late yesterday by Harold Pritchett, district president of the International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.-C.C.L.)

Mr. Pritchett suggested negotiations be under the chairmanship of Chief Justice Gordon Sloan, using his recommendations of June 1 as a basis for settlement.

The operators countered the proposal with a demand that the I.W.A. immediately call off the 30-day-old strike, accepting Chief Justice Sloan's award.

"We are prepared to sign a contract on this basis," said R. V. Stuart, spokesman for the operators, in a telegram to Mr. Pritchett from Vancouver.

"Public interest and welfare of everyone concerned demands that you waste no more time in further stalling and accept on behalf of the I.W.A. Chief Justice Sloan's award of June 1," said Mr. Stuart. "This would make possible the return of employees to the industry's payrolls within a few hours."

Meanwhile, several thousand strikers are expected to arrive in Victoria between 1 and 2 p.m. today. They will assemble in Central Park for a parade to the Legislative Buildings to support the demands a delegation of union leaders will lay before Cabinet in an effort to end the tie-up of the lumber industry.

I.W.A. officials have estimated that at least 6,000 will take part in the mass lobby.

STRIKERS TO STAY AT MACAULAY POINT

Mayor Percy George announced yesterday that by negotiation between Department of National Defence and the city, arrangements have been made to accommodate the strikers at Macaulay Camp.

The city was required to pay $100 for water and light connection, furnish a guarantee against fire or property damage, and appoint a man to accept charge of equipment now in the buildings.

Mayor George emphasized that the action was taken as a health precaution for Victoria citizens.

Following the demonstration at the Legislative Buildings, the mass lobby will march to the camp.

At 7:30 they will leave the camp to march to Central Park for a mass rally, to be addressed by Mr. Pritchett and members of the local I.W.A. and the Greater Victoria Citizens' Committee, formed this week to support the strikers.

Donald McAllister, trek organizer, reported the duration of the woodworkers' stay in Victoria would be decided by the union's central steering committee. It was hoped the object of the mass lobby could be accomplished in a few days.

Approximately 800 members of the I.W.A., including 50 members of the ladies' auxiliary of the union, arrived at Nanaimo at 3:45 p.m. yesterday from Vancouver and other Lower Mainland points.

Strikers Seeking Box Truce

I.W.A. Makes Offer To Save B.C. Fruit

TORONTO, June 13 (CP)—Alex McAuslane, vice-president of the Canadian Congress of Labor, told a C.C.L. rally tonight that striking woodworkers in British Columbia are "standing by," ready to open the box factories there in a three-week truce agreement in order to save the province's fruit.

He said the offer had been taken to Labor Minister Mitchell by George Cruickshank, Progressive Conservative member for Fraser Valley, but that the Federal Labor Minister "would not lend his assistance."

Mr. McAuslane declared that with the basic industries of British Columbia tied up by the lumber strike, the union had offered to open the box factories on the condition that only union help would be employed and that any wage increase finally granted would be retroactive.

At Ottawa, Labor Minister Mitchell said in the Commons he had no knowledge of a report that union officials had offered to open a box factory in British Columbia but that the operators refused.

Mr. Mitchell was answering a question from Mr. Cruickshank, who asked whether the minister had any information on the matter.

Marine Strike Threat Wanes

WASHINGTON, June 14 (Friday) (AP).—The threat of a nation-wide maritime strike receded on the horizon today—just 24 hours before the deadline for an all-coast walkout of C.I.O. seamen and dock workers.

Negotiators marked up progress toward a complete settlement but one key issue remained:

A demand from Harry Bridges for a pay raise for his Pacific Coast longshoremen of a penny more an hour than the Government had offered.

Earlier, Government's top conciliator reported that efforts to erase the threat of a strike had hit "a very satisfactory pace."

Deliver Mail By Helicopter

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP). — Helicopters will be used experimentally for the first time to collect and deliver air mail in the Greater Los Angeles area during July and August, Army Air Forces Headquarters announced today.

Now He's Positive Crime Doesn't Pay

DURHAM, England, June 13 (CP).—Walter Richards, 41, who gave B.B.C. broadcasts in 1938 entitled "Crime Does Not Pay" and who wrote articles with the same moral, today was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary on charges of shopbreaking, receiving stolen goods and assault. He pleaded guilty.

Richards had 31 previous convictions.

Work-Wage Standard Demanded

Conference Is Warned Seafarers Want Change

SEATTLE, June 13 (AP).—J. H. Oldenbroek of the Netherlands, general secretary of the International Transport Workers Federation, warned the World Maritime conference today that "unless we succeed in getting a seafarers' charter out of this conference we shall have to use other means to realize it."

Strong sentiment developed among seamen during the war towards establishment of international standards for wages and working conditions, he said. "We ask for minimum standards and urge this conference to try them out."

Richard Snedden, British shipowners' delegate, questioned today the method of voting in the current conference, charging there should be more discrimination in the according of voting delegates. He said six countries represented at the conference had less total tonnage than the ship which carried him to New York from London.

The conference in putting an international floor under wages for seafarers should also put a ceiling on shipping rates, Capt. Fernandez Madris, Ecuador Government delegate, said today.

Britain Planning Education Reform

BOURNEMOUTH, Hant, England, June 13 (CP).—Education Minister Ellen Wilkinson proclaimed tonight the Government's intention to reform Britain's educational system and "remove those class distinctions which are a handicap to democracy."

"My guiding aims," she told the Labor Party's annual conference here, "are to see that no boy or girl is debarred by lack of means from taking a course of education for which he or she is qualified."

Senator Warns Nations Hasten Peace Charter

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP). — With a solemn "good luck" and a light remark that he might go to Paris himself, President Truman today sped State Secretary Byrnes off to a new—and probably final—attempt to settle the peace of Europe in full-collaboration with Russia.

The remark about a trip to Paris led reporters to ask Press Secretary Charles G. Ross whether Mr. Truman really does intend to go over, the implication being that he might meet Premier Stalin and Prime Minister Attlee. Mr. Ross said the President was joking.

Senator Tom Connally (Democrat, Texas), who accompanied Mr. Byrnes along with Senator Arthur Vandenberg (Republican, Michigan), issued a statement to "warn any nation or power that now plans to subjugate the rest of the world economically or politically or militarily to look for Hitler's glory in the depths of his bomb-proof shelter."

Senator Connally's statement, issued from his office after the departure, said that unless the Paris meeting produces "a quick and definite agreement" on European peace treaties it should "adjourn and call a peace conference of the 21 nations interested in these treaties."

Senator Connally thus brought into the open a determination of the American delegation to make an all-out try to come to an agreement with the Russians and if unsuccessful to seek other means of working out the peace treaties.

Mr. Byrnes has announced that instead of seeking a 21-power peace conference directly he would throw the whole peace issue into the United Nations next September.

Strike of Clergy Looms Unless Salaries Raised

TORONTO, June 13 (CP).—Dr. S. B. Nelson, of Hamilton, told the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada today the clergy may have to go on strike unless something is done to increase its remuneration to meet with the rising cost of living.

He was supported by Prof. John Hughes, of Montreal, who said: "If we have need of social security in the state, we have even greater need for it in the church. The cost of living has increased even more than the 30 per cent the Dominion Government admits, but nothing has been done to help the clergy cope with this increase."

They were speaking on a resolution which increased the minimum salaries of ordained missionaries and ministers in augmented charges to $1,800.

The financial and statistical report showed 173,152 communicants in the church in 1945, an increase of 670 over the previous year. There are 87,244 families in 1,193 congregations.

Held over until the next general assembly was a resolution from Victoria Presbytery charging discrimination against clergymen's incomes by the Income Tax Department in its treatment of both Roman Catholic and Protestant clergy and urging the Dominion Government to institute equitable income taxes for clergymen.

Tunnel Plan

MONTREAL, June 13 (CP).—R. E. Stavert, president of Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. of Canada Ltd., today announced that approximately $3,000,000 is to be spent at the Sullivan Mine and concentrator at Kimberley, B.C. The company is to construct a new four-mile haulage way including two miles of rock tunnel, for a new underground crushing plant.

Amputation Veterans Skillful in Civilian Pursuits

In the photograph at top, George Murtaugh, leg amputation veteran of the World War, distributes books from the library of Gordon Head Convalescent Centre to patients in the wards. Tony Moilliet, naval veteran, is George's customer. Lower, wooden sheets are turned into lath as Matt Carr operates his home-made gang saw in the Amps' novelty shop behind his home at 1032 Balmoral Road.

Disabled Veterans Learn To Overcome Handicaps

Here are two stories of determination to overcome physical handicaps.

They concern two disabled Victoria war veterans who are quickly becoming re-established on civvy street.

The first story is about George Murtaugh, an army veteran who lost a leg in the World War. He now works for the Department of Veterans' Affairs as librarian at Gordon Head Health and Occupational Centre. George gives bed-side service—no less—to convalescing veterans, transporting his stock of books on a mobile book rack.

Matt Carr is a one-armed veteran who originally built a carpentry shop in his back shed to make toys as a hobby. Now he has expanded his facilities into a miniature saw mill, turning out wooden boxes and lath on a large scale. With orders on hand for 50,000 lath and a contract to supply a local soft drink plant with all the wooden boxes he can produce, Matt says his ambition now is to provide jobs for other disabled veterans.

Carr, who saw service in the navy in both wars, lost his right arm in an engine-room accident while on Atlantic convoy duty in September, 1943. He was chief stoker on a mine-sweeper at the time.

Last November he started making toys to earn a little extra pocket money. Calling his business the "Amps Novelty" he worked in a shed behind his home, 1032 Balmoral Road. Soon, however, he branched out, built himself a portable saw mill powered by an automobile motor, a gang-saw for finishing lath, installed band saws and sanding machines to manufacture boxes.

He does all the work himself and figures if he can continue getting orders he will be able to give permanent employment to several amputees.

Within the next two weeks picture displays will be shown in the windows of the two Victoria department stores, illustrating the campaign of the Department of Veterans' Affairs to enlighten the public on the capabilities of physically-disabled veterans.

Willis Is Upheld Manitoba Leader

WINNIPEG, June 13 (CP).—A motion of confidence in the leadership of Provincial Public Works Minister Errick Willis was passed by an overwhelming majority at the Manitoba convention of the Progressive Conservative Party today.

The motion was first put before the delegates at the morning session by Col. J. A. Ross, member of Parliament for Souris, Man., but was deferred until the afternoon at the suggestion of John Haig, of Winnipeg. Mr. Haig reminded the meeting there were rumors of Manitoba Premier Stuart Garson running in the forthcoming Federal by-election at Portage la Prairie. If this was so, he said, the party might have to consider its commitment to a Coalition Government in Manitoba.

Alleges Robbery By Elderly Man

Richard Allen, address unknown, told city police yesterday afternoon that he had been robbed of $400 by an elderly man near the post office.

Allen described the man as being about 60 years old, with small moustache and grey hair and speaking with an English accent. He disappeared into the Empress Hotel, Allen reported.

City detectives are investigating.

Illegal Sale of Liquor Charged

Judgement was reserved by Magistrate Henry C. Hall in city police court yesterday morning on a charge against Cecil MacDonald of illegally selling liquor at 837 North Park Street.

Sgt. John Howe testified that, accompanied by Constable Ray Maitland, he had waited outside the premises while Victor Danchuk went inside and returned with a bottle of gin.

Later Danchuk pointed out MacDonald as the man who had sold him a bottle of gin. Sgt. Howe testified.

He presented as evidence a number of empty gin, rye, beer and soft drink bottles which he said were removed from the house on North Park Street. Two full bottles of gin and one bottle half full were also submitted.

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP).—The army has developed a protective cloth for soldiers that "will stop a bullet," General Jacob L. Devers said today. Other army officials said it is a step beyond the metallic body armor used by airmen and that the details might be disclosed later.

You have heard Stuart Research side of the strike. Come to Macdonald Park on Friday and hear the workers side!

Non-Suit Plea Refused In Rose Trial

MONTREAL, June 13 (CP).—After more than two hours of legal discussion, Mr. Justice Wilfrid Lazure today turned down a motion by defence counsel for non-suit in the trial of Fred Rose on charges of conspiring to send information to Russia.

His Lordship said he was under the impression the Crown was attempting to prove two things—first, existence of a general conspiracy, and second, Rose's involvement in it.

As for the first, he said he thought there was "considerable proof to suggest a general conspiracy."

Concerning the second, he said he felt the evidence of Dr. Raymond Boyer, alleged co-conspirator, was such that the jury should decide on its merits.

The bench noted that Dr. Boyer had testified that Rose had invited him to his house three or four times, that chemical principles concerning R.D.X. (super-explosive) had been discussed and that Rose had "even taken notes."

Mr. Justice Lazure said that this constituted evidence which the jury should be asked to evaluate.

The non-suit motion was presented by Valmore Bienvenue, K.C., immediately after the Crown's case against the Labor-Progressive member of Parliament was declared closed. Defence evidence starts tomorrow.

Pleading the non-suit motion, Mr. Bienvenue contended that the Crown had presented no legal proof to justify sending the case to the jury. He argued that it was necessary to establish a common purpose among all alleged co-conspirators before conspiracy could be proved.

There had been no proof of anything prejudicial to the interests of Canada, he said. Russia was "our ally" and Canada had co-operated with Russia.

There had been no proof that Rose had any relations with the Soviet Embassy, and Igor Gouzenko, former cipher clerk at the embassy, had testified that he had never seen Rose. Neither had Gouzenko seen any of the Canadians named in the indictment as co-conspirators.

British Facing "Tough" Year

BOURNEMOUTH, England, June 13 (CP).—Herbert Morrison, Lord President of the Council, told the Labor Party conference today that British reconversion would be completed this year, "but 1947 will still be pretty tough."

"The famine threat may well dominate" next year, Mr. Morrison said.

He declared 1947 "will be a year of tight supplies and lack of elbow room, but he can reasonably look forward to an increase of imports."

The conference passed a resolution today critizing farm policies and calling on the Government to improve working and welfare conditions for farmers.

The agricultural resolution passed despite the contention of Agriculture Minister Tom Williams that it was unnecessary. Only a few hands were raised against it after a speech in which he indicated the Government planned steps to dispossess inefficient landowners.

A motion urging abandonment of compulsory military service on the grounds that attractive conditions in the forces would produce sufficient volunteers, was defeated on a show of hands.

"Cold Waves" Held Harmful

CHICAGO, June 13 (AP).—Dr. Lawrence H. Cotter, of New York, said today that thioglycolic acid, when used in "cold wave" hair curling, has been found to produce symptoms of poisoning in some allergic and anemic persons.

"The cases in which a toxic reaction has been observed appear to be on the increase," he said in an article in The Journal of the American Medical Association.

"It should be recognized as a danger in unskilled hands."

Tourist Trade Group To Hold Annual Meet

Members of the Tourist Trade Group of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce will hold their annual meeting this afternoon at 3 in the Chamber council room, it was announced yesterday by J. E. Neely, chairman. A full account of participation of the Victoria Girls' Drill Team at the Portland Rose Festival will be presented. The drill team is supported by the Tourist Trade Group.

Need Is Stressed For Immunization

BANFF, Alta., June 13 (CP).—Hundreds of Canadian children die every year because parents are lax in having them immunized against infectious diseases, Dr. J. H. B. Grant, of Vancouver, said in a paper prepared for the Canadian Medical Association meeting here.

Dr. Grant said a complete program of immunization could mean [illegible] There was no need for any incidence of smallpox and diphtheria and very little for whooping cough and scarlet fever.

More children under two years of age died in Canada of whooping cough than of all other infectious diseases. The mortality rate could be reduced through systematic immunization.

Scarlet fever, of which the Dominion had 21,000 cases in 1944, could be combatted with immunization, but this had not been done yet to any extent.

OTTAWA, June 13 (CP).—Stocks of Canadian wheat in store or in transit in North America at midnight on June 6 totaled 59,866,406 bushels, compared with 273,846,544 bushels on the corresponding date last year.

Wavell Says Britain Stopped Plan To Be Prepared if Italy Entered War

LONDON, June 13 (CP).—The War Office was informed in December, 1940, by Field Marshal (then Gen. Sir Archibald) Viscount Wavell that preparations against the eventuality of Italy's joining in the war were impeded by the desire of the British Government to do nothing "which might impair existing relations with that country," it was disclosed today.

Lord Wavell, now Viceroy of India, was British Commander in the Middle East when he sent the dispatch on December 10, 1940. It added: "I was not even permitted to set up a proper intelligence service in Italian territory or to get in touch with patriotic chiefs in Abyssinia."

The famed general said in his report to the War Minister that Allied forces in the Middle East held the fort during the dark days after Dunkerque with the aid of skeleton forces, dummy tanks and inferior airplanes. He said Britain's strategy had been based on the assumption that Middle East forces should buttress Turkey against attack and if Italy did enter the war she could be neutralized by French forces.

Lord Wavell continued that the only reinforcements received in the Middle East between September, 1939, and March, 1940, were the 5th Indian Brigade, the 2nd Battalion Durham Light Infantry, the British 1st Cavalry Division, the 16th Australian Infantry Brigade and a portion of divisional troops of the 6th Australian Division and the 4th New Zealand Infantry Brigade, with some divisional troops of the New Zealand Division.

"These Dominion contingents were magnificent material, but were only partially trained and equipped," he reported.

By June 10, 1940, when Italy declared war, "very little equipment had been sent to the Middle East and no single unit was fully equipped. By the middle of July the enemy had two divisions and elements of two more on the Egyptian frontier, but our small force continued to dominate the situation and to inflict considerable casualties."

During July, as the enemy moved forward gradually across the Western Desert into Egypt, the small force continued to inflict heavy casualties on the enemy with practically no loss to itself.

Lord Wavell made special mention of the small covering force on the western frontier of Egypt from the outbreak of the war with Italy in June to the middle of September and said: "For over three months in hard and difficult climatic conditions this force not only held in check an Italian force many times its superior in numbers but established a definite ascendancy over it, inflicting very heavy losses at trifling cost."

Summarizing the events of the 15 months under review, the Field Marshal wrote: "That the Italians failed to take advantage of their opportunities was due firstly to our Air Force who, in spite of inferior numbers, everywhere took and kept the initiative, and to the stout action of the small covering forces in Egypt, Sudan and East Africa, and finally to the enemy's lack of preparation or desire for hard fighting."

One of the World's Largest Policemen

When reduction of the police force occurred in Lower Merion Township, Pa., Patrolman George Adamson, of West Manayunk, Pa., retired after 25 years of service. Adamson, 51, and weighing 425 pounds, was one of the largest policemen in the world.

Difficult to Be Self-Sufficient In Coal, Howe Tells Commons

OTTAWA, June 13 (CP) — Reconstruction Minister Howe today told the Commons it would not be practical from a short-range viewpoint for Canada to become self-sufficient in coal.

The longer-range policy, the Minister added, at present was under review by the Royal Commission which inquired into Canada's coal industry last year.

Mr. Howe made the statement in response to requests by Opposition members that the Government formulate a national coal policy which would make the Dominion independent of outside supplies.

The discussion arose after T. L. Church (P.C., Toronto Broadview) moved that the House adjourn its regular business to discuss the situation arising as the result of what he said was a United States embargo on the carrying of coal by Great Lakes vessels.

Mr. Church later withdrew his motion.

Mr. Howe said Canada had had a national fuel policy since 1928 and from that year to 1944 had paid out approximately $25,000,000 in subsidies for movement of coal from Nova Scotia to Quebec and Ontario. Another $10,000,000 had been paid for assistance of movement of coal from Alberta and Eastern British Columbia.

He said: "I would point out that it is not practical from a short-range viewpoint for Canada to become self sufficient as regards coal. The present estimated consumption of coal in Ontario and Quebec, practically all from the United States, is around 25,000,000 tons per year.

"Based upon our experience after the last war ended, considering the immense back-log of orders and requirements for manufactured goods and in view of the probable necessity of moving large tonnages of grain and other food products for export for some years, it can be expected that our coal requirements in this area will remain over 20,000,000 tons for some years.

"With a prospective heavy grain movement from Western Canada for some years, the present railway facilities will be pressed to the limit to move East 1,000,000 tons of coal and this requirement plus the extra coal needed by the railways in the West will take up practically all available output."

Will Ship Wheat Via Hudson Bay

OTTAWA, June 13 (CP) — Present elevator stocks of 1,877,737 bushels of wheat will be shipped overseas via Hudson Bay from Churchill when navigation opens, State Secretary Martin informed the Commons for Ross Thatcher (C.C.F., Moose Jaw).

His return added that because of the "extreme urgency" of overseas requirements the Canadian Wheat Board did not "consider it advisable to hold back country elevator stocks of old wheat for shipment via Churchill in August or September."

"Blue Baby" Due In Victoria Soon

It is possible that Janet, Victoria's "blue baby," will leave Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore within three or four weeks for Victoria, her father reported yesterday on arrival here after a month's stay in the Maryland city.

Janet underwent a delicate heart operation at the beginning of May, and was in a dangerous condition for a short while. She is now on the road to recovery. Her mother will remain in Baltimore.

Janet will now lead a happy and normal life because of the kindness and generosity of people of Victoria and the Island who contributed more than $4,000 in a campaign sponsored by the Victoria Lions Club.

Dr. Henrietta Anderson Named Recreation Council Organizer

Dr. Henrietta Anderson was unanimously appointed organizer of the permanent Council of Recreation at a meeting at the City Hall last night. F. C. Jones was named provisional chairman.

Dr. Anderson said she would make an extensive survey trip to the United States and Western Canada, at her own expense, to study recreational development in other centres.

A board of directors was elected at the meeting. The following comprise the board: Dr. Henrietta Anderson, Dr. Olga Jardine, Mrs. A. J. Bewley, Mrs. C. Buhlin, Mrs. M. A. Hurst, Mrs. E. C. Peters, Mrs. A. J. Tullis, Mrs. H. McKenzie, Miss M. Wright, Prof. Basanta, B. Duncan, D. Fletcher, T. S. Floyd, E. C. Jones, A. Hickman, Freeman King, E. J. Miller, R. Morrison, Ald. F. G. Mulliner, A. W. Murphy, F. Paulding, P. M. Shandley, Ivan Temple, W. H. Warren, Alf Worthington, and Rev. T. L. Leadbeater.

More than 80 accredited delegates representing every type of organization in Greater Victoria attended the meeting.

The chairman, Dr. Anderson, summarized the aims of the organization, and allayed the misgivings of the elderly people who feared it might become a glorified Teen Canteen, and of youth who had an idea it might become an "old ladies' tea party."

Dr. Anderson stated it will be concerned with recreation "from the cradle to the grave." No existing organization will lose its identity.

A letter from the Welfare Council was read suggesting affiliation. The finance committee was instructed to report on the question at the next meeting of the board of directors to be held June 20.

Meat Situation In Victoria Is Deadlocked

Packers and retail meat dealers here are likely to be deadlocked next week in their argument on the wholesale price of meat, according to Reginald Williams, president of the Vancouver Island Retail Meat Association. "There is no change in our stand. We will not pay more than 23½ cents a pound," Mr. Williams said last night, referring to the fact that wholesale price of top-grade beef was 24½ cents a pound yesterday.

There will be no trouble this week, he continued, as most retailers have a good supply on hand, purchased before the price went up.

Mr. Williams pointed out that the retail ceiling price was based on the former wholesale price of 21½ cents a pound on special grade beef, which today is selling wholesale at 24½ cents.

The butcher loses money even paying the wholesaler 23½ cents a pound, Mr. Williams said.

Two New Island Companies Formed

New company incorporations at the Legislative Buildings during the week ended yesterday, totaling 21, included only two Vancouver Island firms. They were Felt & Textiles of Canada, Ltd., of 200,000 shares, no par value, with registered office in Victoria, and Jim's Taxi Ltd., Port Alberni, capitalized at $10,000.

Fifteen of the new companies were registered from Vancouver and the remainder from other parts of the province. Four new Vancouver organizations also were registered under the Societies Act.

The Bill Mounts

British Columbia's strike bill is mounting. There appears no one to whom the citizens may present it, and it is the citizens who will pay it in the last event. If it could be itemized we suggest it might read a little like this:

Payrolls unpaid in British Columbia primary and secondary industries—$350,000 a day.

Loss of private savings of workers directly or indirectly displaced in dispute—$150,000 a day.

Major interruption in British Columbia's postwar reconstruction, of which the $4,000,000 building program in this community is one example—$500,000 a day.

Delay in completion of needed hospital, school, hotel and apartment construction—$100,000 a day.

Complete stoppage in British Columbia of national housing program, affecting more than 100 all but completed homes in this small community—$100,000 a day.

Direct loss from spoiling fruit and vegetables now maturing fast in successive crops—$250,000 a day.

Direct loss through breach of export agreements with United Kingdom, the United States and many other countries—$100,000 a day.

Indirect loss through failure of export trade in several major lines, being that loss which is measured in goodwill—no estimate possible.

Direct and indirect loss of new enterprise brought to stop by failure of miscellaneous supplies and labor—$250,000 a day.

Unseen losses in the risen price of commodities by reason of the upturn in the general inflationary spiral—no estimate possible.

The roughly estimated portion of these losses would add to $1,800,000 a day. Supposing, however, that the true losses had been a fraction of that sum, say one-tenth—that would still be $180,000 a day. That is a deal to pay for what is, in so far as the general public is concerned, an absence of any real counter-balancing result. The people of British Columbia will not grow rich on the strike. It is the more probable that many homes will be broken, while the trade we forego will be accepted by others to our cost. If any citizen is cheering for that, we have not heard of it.

Albert Toller Goward

For close upon half a century Mr. A. T. Goward, whose death after a lingering illness took place at his home here on Wednesday evening, was identified with the pioneering and development of electric light and power in British Columbia. He was part of the former National Electric Tramway & Light Company, Ltd., which gave to Victoria its early start in hydro-electric service towards the end of the Nineteenth Century. He rose from conductor on that system to be vice-president in charge of Vancouver Island services of the B.C. Power Corporation, Ltd., the modern counterpart of the very early venture. He had retired after a lifetime of conscientious service in the hydro-electric field. His passing, at the age of 74, will be regretted sincerely.

Born at Tenby, South Wales, Albert Toller Goward was educated in the United Kingdom and served his novitiate in the business world in insurance houses in Bristol and London, England. He came to Victoria as a young man in 1890, went to work for the National Electric Tramway, and one year later was promoted to its pioneer office force. His promotion to the position of manager of the Victoria roots of that enterprise came in 1898, while in 1923 he was chosen as vice-president of the reorganized enterprise taken over by the B.C. Power Corporation, Ltd. Mr. Goward retired quite recently owing to failing health, and had been living quietly at his home here.

A lifelong devotee of fishing and golf, Mr. Goward retained to the end his keen interest in both pastimes. He was a member of the Union Club, and of the senior Victoria golfing organizations. He played with the Seniors' Northwest Golf Association for several years, and was widely known both inside of and outside of his business pursuits. Victoria had no more sincere nor hard-working citizen, one who had been privileged to see this community develop from the humble beginnings of the 1890's to the present day. The sympathy of the community will go to his widow and family in their sad loss.

Traditional Role

In his speech this week Mr. Ernest Bevin mentioned a point often overlooked when views on the Palestine situation are expounded—the traditional role of the British Tommy. British troops are in Palestine as policemen, not soldiers. It is not a happy lot—that of the policeman during disorder never is—but the world has been much the gainer within the past century because a British Tommy was on the spot to maintain order in any one of half a hundred troubled centres. With no personal axe to grind, he has too often had to bear the brunt of ill-feeling on the part of both disputants.

"Don't blow up the British Tommy," said Mr. Bevin to Arabs and Jews alike, "he is quite innocent in this business." It is probably too much to hope these rival factions will heed this reminder to any great extent, judging by reports of their present inflamed feelings. Yet, until the guns are put away there will be faint hope for a settlement in the difficult Palestinian problem, and no relief in sight for Tommy Atkins.

It is clear the British Foreign Secretary does not intend that more troops shall be exposed to the fire of both Arab and Jew. To carry out the recommendation of the Anglo-American Commission that 100,000 additional Jews be admitted to Palestine, would necessitate the employment of another British division, and that is considered out of the question. British commitments in the Holy Land, both human and financial, are already extensive, and additional measures carried out by the United Kingdom alone would add the staggering sum of $890,000,000 to the burden already borne by the British taxpayer.

A fact too often forgotten is that Great Britain is merely acting as the trustee of Palestine, under a mandate granted by the League of Nations. The Anglo-American Commission emphasized that for some time to come this mandate must be continued, in the interests of the peace of the world. The United Kingdom has reached the state where she asks, in reason, that this grave trusteeship be shared by other United Nations, particularly the United States. The British Tommy should no longer be expected to play his traditional role of policeman unsupported and alone.

Merited Honor

The viscountcy conferred on Lord Louis Mountbatten in the King's Birthday Honors List is not only a well-merited reward for distinguished war leadership, similar to that given each of Great Britain's most eminent commanders, but also recalls a war front less familiar in detail to the public than others, that of Burma. Allied troops there were fated, until the very end, to fight under the continued handicap of material shortages of almost every kind. The Burmese campaign was one of terrible hardships, and full credit for the stamina and resources of the troops involved has not yet been widely given. The largest single field unit of the entire war was finally deployed in Burma.

That army, the Fourteenth, composed of British and Indian soldiers under the command of General Sir William Slim, came under Lord Mountbatten's jurisdiction as Supreme Allied Commander in Southeast Asia, and it drove the Japanese from Burma in decimated and headlong retreat. Along with vast air and naval fleets, it was poised ready to invade Singapore and Malaya at the moment Japan surrendered, and the enemy capitulation alone prevented the Fourteenth Army from exacting sweet and swift retribution from Japanese forces there.

Lord Louis Mountbatten is one of the most colorful figures of the war. A brilliant naval destroyer captain, he survived three torpedoings, including the sinking of his ship, the Kelly, at the Battle of Crete. Then came his leadership of the famed Commandos, whose exploits won world renown. This led to his assumption of the Southeast Asia Command, which was on its final victory march when the war ended. His earned viscountcy serves as a tribute to his own personal leadership, and also to the forces he commanded in the Far East.

Seen in Passing

Mr. K. B. Swinton, manager of the electronics division of the RCA Victor Company, Ltd., of Montreal, gave this community some useful information in an effective address on television this week. Canada, he pointed out, had not moved governmentally in the matter, although it would require from two to three years to set up the ten or eleven television transmitters which would be needed to serve the people of this nation with what is now a tested and perfected degree of sight-sound transmission. Of interest to the public was his remark that the first receiving sets in the postwar period will be both moderately priced and lasting.

One of the most illuminating thoughts of all time was that of Thomas De Quincy, who, writing in the early decades of the Nineteenth Century, asked what would be the fate of man if the mind went for an audit when its human chapter was closed and done with. Not the mind of the moment, he explained, but the whole mind with all that it had entertained from infancy to old age. There is a vision to give men pause.

Say Not the Struggle . . .

Say not the struggle nought availeth,
The labor and the wounds are vain,
The enemy faints not, nor faileth,
And as things have been they remain.

If hopes were dupes, fears may be liars;
It may be, in yon smoke concealed,
Your comrades chase e'en now the fliers,
And, but for you, possess the field.

For while the tired waves, vainly breaking,
Seem here no painful inch to gain,
Far back, through creeks and inlets making,
Come silent, flooding in, the main.

And not by eastern windows only,
When daylight comes, comes in the light,
In front, the sun climbs slow, how slowly,
But westward, look, the land is bright.

—ARTHUR HUGH CLOUGH.

The Third Column

By TOM TAYLOR

PECK-AND-HUNT

As a graduate of the peck-and-hunt school of typewriting—perhaps it should be hunt-and-peck—this column was intrigued by reports of the champion speed typist who demonstrated his skill in Victoria this week.

Here was a man, the reporters said, who made his typewriter purr, a rhythmic blend of velvety sound. He had wings on his fingers.

No one was better qualified to assess his typing virtuosity. News rooms echo to plenty of sound when reporters are at their desks, but not even the most biassed would describe it as velvety.

You see, strange as it may seem, as Ripley's rival says, most newspapermen who perforce sit down daily to a typewriter are artists of the two-finger variety. Or at the outside three or four. They came up the hard way, as it were. No doubt a professional would say they are still pursuing the hard way.

Except that they use a similar instrument, there is no relationship between a professional typist and a news reporter. To the former a typewriter is a machine to be handled gracefully, with a free and effortless motion. To the latter a typewriter is merely something that stands between his brain and the written word.

BROKEN RULES

A visit to a news room would probably shock a professional typist. He would see all the rules broken, and in a dozen different ways. The typing niceties that result in beautifully spaced sentences and immaculate works of art, if not at a low ebb are certainly not at flood tide.

Fortunately for the reporter, the composing room does not demand manuscripts of perfection. Provided copy is reasonably clean and legible, all is well. The typewritten product in itself, it should be remembered, means nothing. It is what the words say, not how they look, that matters.

This is not to belittle the reporter's speed at the job—oh, no. As a matter of fact some peck-and-hunt newspapermen could almost offer competition to a woodpecker. They might even make a professional typist open his eyes. They would certainly entertain him.

Until you've seem a dozen masters of the two-fingered variety at work you haven't, to use the popular expression, seen anything.

There is the fellow who treats his typewriter as a personal enemy, for example. To him the machine is merely an obstruction to be dealt with violently. He squares his elbows and launches two stabbing forefingers as though he would smash it. He almost does, too.

SPRAYING WORDS

Then there is the machine-gun artist. His forte is spraying words on his copy paper. They come in bursts, and how they come! Tap-tap-tap-tap-p-p-p-p-p-p-p. Silence. Tap-tap-tap-tap-p-p-p-p-p-p. Silence. Tap-tap-tap-tap-p-p-p-p-p-p-p-p. He usually has to change his ribbon frequently.

Occasionally the clatter of the typewriter is even and smooth, more in line with prescribed touch-system practice. It all depends on how the thoughts flow from the head to the tips of the fingers. Reporters, you see, are not just copying sentences, they are making them up as they go along. Wherein lies a not inconsiderable difference.

It is flattering, no doubt, but sometimes callers seem to think all a reporter does is to turn a key in his head, and presto! Out come the words in a nice, even, endless flow. Would that they did!

That's why the typewriter suffers so much abuse in a news room. When you see a reporter bending tensely over his machine its probably because he's desperate to pin down in front of him those precious words that hover elusively halfway between his mind and his fingers.

NEVER COME BACK

And, you know, if you don't formulate your ideas and get them into typewritten sentences quickly enough, they fly away and never come back. Or at least in not quite the same desirable fashion.

There is always the fortunate fellow, of course, who is the envy of his colleagues. He sits back upright, an expression of perfect calm on his face, his fingers moving easily over the keys. He's the exception.

Most of the time the faces of two-fingered operators are studies in concentration, and their jerky fingers indicate the toil of their minds.

Yes, the professional typist would be interested in a visit to a newspaper office. He would at least pick up some wrinkles on how to handle a typewriter with abandon. Not in the mellifluous manner to which he is accustomed, but in the tough, work-a-day fashion of the hunt-and-peck operator.

News reporters talk about "pounding" out a story. That is exactly what they do. They pound it out sometimes with the full weight of their shoulders as well as their minds.

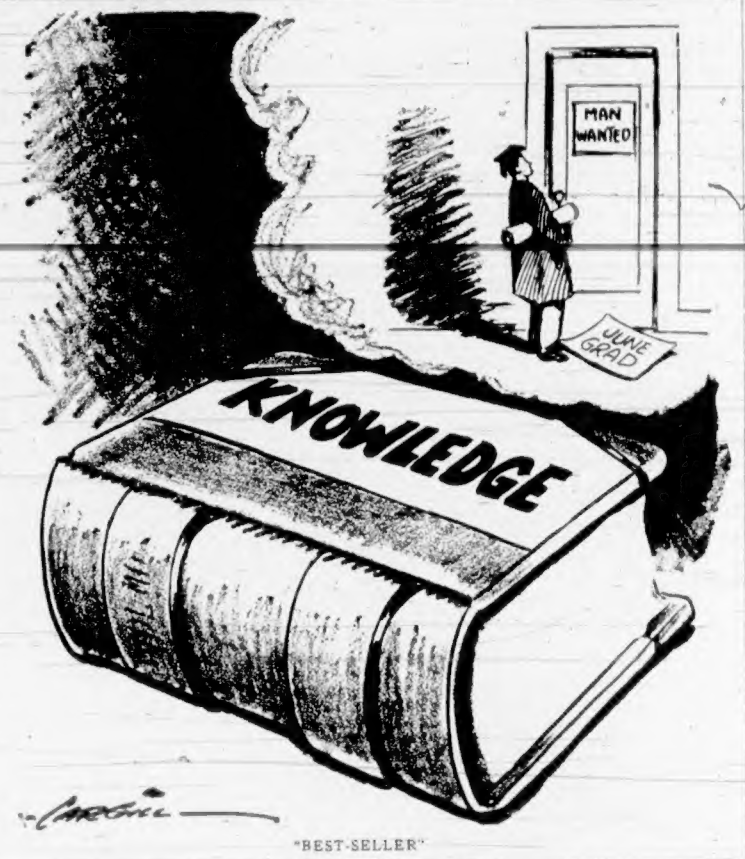
But their stories generally read remarkably smooth, just the same.

Pensioners Hold Tag Day Saturday

The Canadian Pensioners' Association of World Wars I and II will hold their annual tag day tomorrow, it has been announced by R. C. Keane, secretary.

The chief object of the association is to give assistance to veterans and their dependents. Over 1,200 successful cases have been handled according to officials.

Who is right, 30,000 workers or 147 operators.



"BEST-SELLER"

Normandy's Beach Towns Look for Tourists

By L. S. B. SHAPIRO
North American Newspaper Alliance

BAYEUX, Normandy, June 6 (Delayed)—At first glance it seems "D" Day might have been yesterday—not two years ago. The wind is damp and cold, just as it was on that other morning; and the high overcast is only slightly less grey than the angry Channel waters lashing incessantly at the beach obstacles. The obstacles, like legions of frozen warriors, clutter the deserted beaches between Cherbourg and the Orne Estuary. On certain stretches of beach the weather-beaten hulks of shattered landing craft remain gaunt against the grey setting to show the precise points where we cut through the German defences. The pillboxes and concrete trench systems still face the sea, and here and there the rusty snout of a machine-gun looks with grim inquiry toward the surf. It might have been yesterday that we stormed ashore here and pushed through to the battle inland.

Only the silence truly attests the passage of years. For the campaigner returning to the scene it is a fabulous silence; ruined towns sitting naked without the crack and whistle of the cannon that laid them waste; roads still deeply rutted but lacking the rumble of endlessly passing trucks and tanks; the skeletons of wrecked planes in the fields without the whine of their successors climbing in the sky; slit trenches dug in the shadow of the hedgerows, with none of the raucous sounds of the men who once inhabited them.

And then one comes upon sombre sights that give validity to the silence. On a plateau near the town of St. Laurent, overlooking the forbidding beach called Omaha, an American flag flutters over the green and white cemetery where lie the Americans who fell on "D" Day. Ten miles westward, on the outskirts of Bayeux, another precisely arranged field sprouts the crosses of the British soldiers who died in the beachhead battle. Five miles farther west, on high land that affords a vista of both beach and subsequent battlefield, the Canadian Cemetery at Beny-Sur-Mer is muted evidence of the ferocious battle that once invested this countryside.

The beachhead towns, hacked and scarred, have persisted in living. Minor repairs to dwellings not wholly ruined have been completed, and the townspeople are ready for the Summer season. Before the Allied invasion hit these Norman beaches, the towns hereabouts catered to the holiday wants of lower middle-class Parisian families. This year they are ready once more to receive their old-time clients, and it seems their old-time clients are eager to come. Every vacant room between Caen and Barfleur is booked solid through August.

"It is not that they want to see the historic sights of the battle," said Michel Graves, owner of the tiny Park Hotel on the beach at Bernieres, where the Ninth Canadian Brigade landed. "No, the sights are sad. But our good Norman food is what the Parisians want. They know they will eat well in Normandy."

I walked down the Boulevard de Regiment de Berkshire in Courseulles until I reached the beach. The big concrete emplacement that housed a German field gun was still there, and running from it an intricate trench system. The last time I saw it, the emplacement was filled with German dead and impaled on the barbed wire in front were Canadian dead, rows of them, fallen as they rushed from the surf. This Macabre scene was enacted beneath the porch of an open-air restaurant. The sign of "Albert Chedeville—restaurant—huitres—homards" lent a bizarre touch to the bloody business on the beach. The restaurant is open for business again. Madame Chedeville has rebuilt her place and the little terrace is filled with tables and chairs, ready for tourists from Paris this year and from England and America for many years to come.

Before the war Bayeux was famous for its tapestry and its cathedral. Its merchants now foresee a far greater popularity. It is centrally located for visits to all the beach landing places and the town looks forward to 20 years of heavy tourist trade. "This year we will get only the French who want to eat our Norman butter and cheese. But next year the mothers and the fathers will come to see the graves of their boys. And after that the men who fought and lived—they will come to show it to their grown children. And years hence, people will come because they have read of this battle in their history books. Bayeux will become the most famous place in Normandy."

Years hence, perhaps. Today it is grey and cold and quiet. And there is little to denote triumph except that our cemeteries lie landward of the concrete cupolas, their empty eyes still turned toward the sea.

ANOTHER VIEW

Sir,—May I show my appreciation to Major McInnes of the Salvation Army, for the stand he has taken in regard to the playing of baseball on Sundays? It is about time the Salvation Army has become broad enough in its views to change the regulation of the organization and accept the fact that men can no longer be held down by the former rules of religious organizations. Men now realize that Sunday is made for man and not man for Sunday, and one can worship God in the great outdoors just as devotedly and sincerely as within the walls of a church or cathedral. I would like to see the leaders of all religious bodies add their support to the stand taken by the few.

As an ex-bandsman of the Salvation Army, I wish to thank Major McInnes and the others who supported him in his stand to make Sunday a day in which one can enjoy the beauties and pleasures of this life with a clear conscience and have no fear of an angry God looking down in disdain upon him.

An alderman suggested at the last meeting of the City Council that two lots be set aside for a playing field in Victoria West district. Victoria West Park has ample space for outdoor sports, but for some unknown reason has never been a popular playground . . . From Canadian Business: "Immediate effects of the breakdown of the Dominion-Provincial Conference will be mixed. On the one hand there will be a sharp scaling down of proposed expenditures on old age pensions and health schemes by Ottawa. The provinces may adopt social security plans of their own, but total expenditures will not be on the scale which the Dominion Government was promising. Elimination of contentious subsidy payments to the provinces will relieve Ottawa of heavy obligations. Income tax deductions will tend to invite the provinces to step in and counteract the relief which Ottawa may grant. Municipalities may also see a source of revenue, and we may revert to a three-way system of income taxes" . . . The Automobile Accident Insurance Act of Saskatchewan affects 180,000 car owners and drivers. It requires a car owner to pay an extra $5 when he registers his machine, and $1 when he gets a driver's licence. The Government then provides public liability insurance up to the amount of $5,000. Another act concerning 4,000 school boards, hospitals and sanatoria receiving government grants compels them to purchase fire insurance from the government. The New Zealand Government has been in the life insurance business for more than 70 years, but recent figures showed that less than 20 per cent of the total number of policies in force were written by the government. At least there is not the element of compulsion like Saskatchewan.

Mayor Asks Support for National Clothing Drive

Mayor Percy E. George yesterday made the following proclamation in aid of the National Clothing Collection for the peoples of Europe, June 17 to 29:

"Millions of people who were our allies in the war-devastated lands of the world are struggling for survival against hunger and disease and are in dire need of clothing, shoes and bedding.

"The meeting of this urgent need overseas will serve not only to relieve suffering humanity but will contribute a full share towards the creation of a lasting peace.

"The Prime Minister of Canada, the Premiers of all the Provinces and the religious leaders of all faiths are supporting this second appeal to the Canadian people.

"As mayor of the city, I urge all citizens to co-operate in this collection of clothing, shoes and bedding for overseas relief in the hope that the goal of one garment or more from every man, woman and child in Canada will be reached.

"I would also urge all contributors to attach goodwill messages to their gifts of clothing as a friendly gesture to those who have endured and suffered for the Allied cause."

Girls' Team Needs Money

"They stole the show," said J. E. Neely yesterday while telling Chamber of Commerce directors about the Victoria Girls' Drill Team participation in the recent Portland Rose Festival.

Chairman of the tourist trade group of the chamber, which sponsors the drill team, Mr. Neely said "they did the city credit in a great many ways."

He said the team was not appreciated here as it should be, and that the publicity it brought to the city was "tremendous."

It was not fair the girls should have to pay for their own meals on trips of that nature, Mr. Neely remarked. This they had done, he added, on trips to Portland, where the team had attended three rose festivals.

A cash gift to the girls of the team was suggested by Archie Wills.

Captain Norman Foster, trainer and director of the team, said the girls actually contributed their own money on such journeys of international and intercity goodwill. The City Council had rejected an application for a tag day to raise funds for the team, Capt. Foster added, and no second application had been made.

Says China Is In Dire Need Of Medicines

China is in desperate need of medical supplies, drugs and surgical instruments of all kinds, and almost all of that country's 400 hospitals will have to be re-equipped.

This was stated yesterday by Everett James Case, national treasurer of the Chinese War Relief Fund, in an interview yesterday at the Empress Hotel.

Of the total 1946 budget of $2,500,000 planned by the organization, $500,000 will be used for medical and hospital supplies, Mr. Case said. At the same time, he added, a large sum will be spent for the training of refugees who wish to become nurses. The $600,000 that has been earmarked for this work, it was explained, will also include payment for the printing of textbooks, and will be used to purchase new equipment.

War brought damage to all hospitals of China, Mr. Case continued, and $200,000 has been set aside for the repair and rebuilding of these buildings.

Other amounts set aside by the relief organization include: $350,000 for ambulance units, $100,000 for construction, $250,000 for textiles and blankets, and $100,000 for additional personnel. Speaking of the last item, Mr. Case said there was a great need for field supervisors, and other workers for which U.N.R.R.A. cannot assume full responsibility.

Inadequate Dock Facilities Divert Fish Boats From City

Many large fishing vessels are being diverted to Vancouver with heavy catches because there are not adequate docking facilities here, Walter S. Miles told a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors yesterday afternoon.

Mentioning that the sockeye and spring salmon season was already [illegible] were being brought here from northern Island waters, Mr. Miles also said there was a shortage of help to handle the loads.

Fred Hawes, chairman of the chamber's port and harbor development committee, said money had been set aside for reconversion in Canada, and he felt "Victoria should have some of this for the development of her harbor."

Work on the fishermen's float in the Inner Harbor should be started within a short time, Mr. Hawes said.

Two and a half acres had been set aside in San Francisco Harbor as a free port area, Mr. Miles said. He suggested something along that line be done here, and has written San Francisco for further details.

Woodworkers of America, directors were asked to endorse requests of the union that it be allowed to solicit public assistance for needy families of the strikers. No action was taken.

Major H. C. Holmes, president of the chamber, said the organization would give its support to the National Clothing Drive, which gets under way in Greater Victoria late this month. It is hoped to collect 100 tons in this area.

Background Facts of the
I.W.A. TREK TO VICTORIA

Victoria citizens, involuntary hosts to a gathering of I.W.A. "trekkers," are offered the following information summarizing the situation in the disastrous I.W.A. lumber strike:

1. The operators had a master agreement with and fully recognized the I.W.A. and negotiated freely with it.

2. They consistently opposed pressure by the I.W.A. to bargain away the basic freedom of their employees by making an agreement with the I.W.A. compelling employees to join or remain in the union or be fired from their jobs.

3. Their final offer in negotiations was a general wage increase of $1.00 a day—this on top of a wage scale already the highest in Canadian heavy industry.

4. The union called this strike illegally on May 15 without going through conciliation, as required by law.

5. The I.W.A. closed down food container plants and sawmills indiscriminately with picket squads whether or not it had contracts with these plants.

6. When the Dominion Government's mediator, Hon. Chief Justice Sloan, made his recommendations to settle the strike, these were accepted in their entirety by the operators, although they involved $11,500,000 a year additional wages.

7. Premier Hart of British Columbia, the Minister of Labor for Canada, the Minister of Labor for British Columbia, and all metropolitan daily newspapers urged the I.W.A. to accept the Sloan findings.

8. The I.W.A. rejected these proposals and repudiated Chief Justice Sloan, whom it accused of breach of good faith and of misleading the public.

9. The operators announced their inability to accept more than the Sloan proposals.

A Summary of
CHIEF JUSTICE SLOAN'S RECOMMENDATIONS:

WAGES:

I recommend a wage increase of 12c an hour across the board.

HOURS OF WORK:

I recommend an average 44-hour week in the logging industry to be arranged as follows:

A 48-hour week during the months of April, May, June, July, August and September, with time and one-half for the hours worked in excess of a 44-hour week.

A 40-hour week during the remaining months of the year.

I recommend a 44-hour week in the sawmills.

In view of the urgent need for building materials both here and elsewhere and the lack of both skilled and unskilled labor to produce logs and lumber the requested reduction of the working week to 40 hours, with consequent decrease in over-all production, in my opinion, cannot be justified at the present time.

CHECK-OFF:

I recommend a voluntary revocable "check-off."

UNION SECURITY:

"Union Security" embodies the Union request for contractual clauses creating "union shop" working conditions, or alternatively providing for "maintenance of union membership." It also includes "check-off." I have dealt with the request for a voluntary revocable check-off.

In round figures, and according to the information given me, the logging and sawmilling industry on the Coast now employs about 37,000 men. Approximately 24,000 or 75 per cent are now members of the Union. Union dues are $1.50 a month.

On these facts, and after weighing other relevant considerations, I am unable to reach the conclusion that the Union during the life of the 1946 contract will stand in any need of any form of additional "security" or "union shop" organization in order to permit it effectively to "police the contract."

In consequence, I do not recommend that any clauses respecting "union security" be written into the 1946 contract except in relation to a voluntary revocable "check-off."

WAGES PAID AND PROPOSED . . .

Here are existing rates compared with those proposed by Hon. Chief Justice Sloan, which operators agreed to adopt:

LOGGING Common Labor Occupation	Present Rate Per 8 Hour Day	Proposed by Chief Justice Sloan Per 8 Hour Day
Dishwasher	$ 5.41	$ 6.61
Section Hands	5.60	6.80
Wood Splitters	5.96	7.16
LOGGING CREWS:
Signal Punks (Boys)	6.08	7.28
Chokermen	6.64	7.84
Rigging Slingers	7.76	8.96
Yarding Engineers	8.58	9.78
Head Loaders	9.11	10.31
High Riggers	10.16	11.36

Fallers and Buckers whose daily earnings now range from $12.00 to $18.00 per day would be increased in proportion to the advance in daily rates.

SAWMILLS	Per Hour	Per Hour
Common Labor	$ .67	$ .82
Green Chain Hands	.72	.87
Resaw Feeder	.77	.92
Tailsawyer	.79	.94
Setter	.92	1.07
Gang Sawyer	1.03	1.18
Edgerman (over 10")	1.12	1.27

Night Shift Employees 5c per hour extra

The I.W.A. executive can best extricate themselves and the workers they have led into an impossible situation by accepting the Sloan recommendations. Acceptance could see the industry back into operation and vital payrolls resumed in 24 hours.

Two-Year Wait For Television

Television will not be generally available for Canadians for another two or three years.

K. V. Swinton, manager of the electronics division, R.C.A. Victor Co., Ltd., Montreal, made that statement yesterday before a meeting of the Rotary Club in the Empress Hotel.

After presenting a brief outline of its history, Mr. Swinton said television was based on the principle that "you can cheat the human eye." He explained his point by mention of the motion picture.

Television dated back to an invention of 1873, the speaker said, and since then there had been a steady stream of discoveries and developments. Millions of dollars were spent perfecting the invention before it was placed before the public, and for that reason it is generally felt there will be no basic discoveries which will tend to make present equipment obsolete, Mr. Swinton said.

Television sets were selling at $150 in the United States, and ultra-complete units were as high as $400. The speaker explained that television was highly technical, and to date could cover only a limited area. Television programs would be transmitted on a network basis, as radio programs are today.

"As a public service," Mr. Swinton said, "television is now out of the laboratory stage. Its importance in the entertainment, educational and advertising field cannot be overestimated."

Says "Mothering" Best for Child

The great importance of the relationship between child and parent was stressed by Dr. James F. Tyhurst when he addressed the Nursery School Association and friends at a meeting on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. P. D. Sills, Windsor Road.

Dr. Tyhurst, who is shortly returning to Montreal to continue his studies at the Allan Institute of Psychiatry, discussed the need for sufficient and satisfying "mothering" during earliest infancy if emotional problems are not to arise in later life. The instinct of all parents to fondle and rock their babies and to croon and sing to them, is now recognized in the latest findings of psychological research as playing a fundamental part in the emotional growth of the infant. The slightly older child, who has not yet reached school age, needs endless opportunities for satisfying his curiosity and his urge to create. This is when the nursery school can be of inestimable value in supplementing the often restricted opportunities of the home, he stated, while at the same time it provides an environment where social growth can take place under the best possible conditions.

Mrs. Vernor Jones, president of the Nursery School Association, spoke briefly on the aims of the association which are to increase the knowledge of the value of this type of education and to work towards the establishment of nursery schools. The raising of a bursary fund of $500 to send a graduate of the University of British Columbia to train in nursery school work has been the main work this year. Further contributions are still needed and should be sent to Miss S. Pike, treasurer, 2164 Oak Bay Avenue.

A's Waste Jensen's Four-Hit Twirling

Ninth-Inning Rally Stopped by Senators As Victorians Drop Tough Decision, 3-2

SALEM, June 13 (CP)—Lefty Carl Gunnarson choked off a ninth inning threat by the cellarite Victoria Athletics here tonight to enable the Salem Senators to win 3-2 for their seventh consecutive victory. For Gunnarson it was the eighth pitching success of the season without a setback.

Salem scored first, counting in the initial frame on a walk to Lou Kubiak, who promptly stole second, moved to third on an error, and scored on Vern Reynold's long fly.

The league leaders chalked up their second run in the fourth when Dick Wenner was hit by a pitched ball, stole second, went to third on a fly to centrefield, and scored on Catcher Hank Souza's single to right field.

Victoria evened matters in the sixth when First Sacker Vic Buccola beat out a bunt, Bob Cherry tripled to right, and Pete Hughes rapped a single to the same place.

The Solons got their winner in the seventh on a base on balls, a double by Hank Bartolomei, and an infield out.

Victoria got men on second and third with none down in the ninth, but Gunnarson forced one batter to pop out weakly and the next two grounded out to prevent any scoring.

Victoria got eight hits off Gunnarson to only four for Salem off Bob Jensen, but Jenson put all of Salem's runs on base himself.

WENATCHEE POWER TOO MUCH FOR CAPILANOS

WENATCHEE, June 13 (CP)—Two home runs that brought in six Wenatchee tallies enabled the Wenatchee Chiefs to defeat Vancouver's Capilanos, 10-3, here tonight to give them a 2-1 edge in their Western International League series.

Dick Adams homered for Wenatchee with two mates aboard in the first and Jim Warner repeated the process in the seventh.

Jim Estrada, Vancouver shortstop, had a perfect night at the plate with four for four, one a double. The last two innings were played in a light rain.

Buffalo Blanks Syracuse Chiefs

The losing streak of the second-place Syracuse Chiefs is beginning to look disastrous. It reached four games last night as Buffalo Bisons shut them out, 5-0, and the Chiefs hold on the runner-up spot in the International League is weakening. At one time a serious threat to the pace-setting Montreal Royals, they now are having difficulty to stay in front of the climbing Newark Bears.

They got an assist from the Royals last night when the leaders halted the Bears' five-game winning string with a 7-5 victory to keep the New York Yankee farm club 1 1-2 games from second-place.

Rain Washes Out Baseball Fixture Will Play Sunday

HEAVY rain caused postponement of last night's scheduled McGavin Cup fixture between the Eagles and Canadian Legion before the end of the third frame. Legion were in the middle of a prolonged rally in their half of the inning with three runs in when the game was called.

League officials announced that the clubs would meet in a replay at Royal Athletic Park on Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

Athletics Sign Hurler; Seek Second Catcher

Scouting desperately for additional mound help, Victoria Athletics have signed Al Janeway, southpaw recently released by San Francisco Seals, it was announced last night by Reg Patterson, business manager. Athletics are also carrying on negotiations with Dick Sinovich, outstanding semi-pro with the Portland Rialtos.

Unable to obtain the services of Bill Beard, who is doing all the catching at present for the Seattle Rainiers, Manager Ted Norbert is attempting to sign Nick Bonarigo, former Rainier maskman, who is a free agent.

Further news from the Victoria camp reveals Norbert has placed himself on the inactive list until he is again able to play. Ian Lowe, still the property of the Victoria club, will leave today for Calgary, where he will join the Purity 99's in the fast Alberta semi-pro loop.

American Cars To Compete Here Tomorrow

With three, and possibly more, American cars entered, race fans should see some keen competition tomorrow night at the Langford Speedway.

The visitors, all from Seattle, include Lou McMurtry in his single-stick Model "T" Ford. Driving the "33" car will be Don Baker, while "Zeke" Zeigler, who appeared here three weeks ago, will again be on hand in his "47" bug. Officials of the B.C.A.S.A. are awaiting word from three or four other American drivers who, it is hoped, will be available for the event.

Local carmen will be out in full strength with their gas buggies. Heading the line-up of Victoria drivers will be "Digger" Caldwell, winner of the main event in both previous meets this year. Other entries will be Jerry Vantreight, "Corky" Thomas, Pike Green, Johnny Wright, Bob Wensley, Jack Norton and Jack Spalding.

First race is at 7:45 p.m.

Prodigal Returns

MONTREAL, June 13 (CP)—Jean Pierre Roy, Montreal-born pitcher who left Brooklyn Dodgers ten days ago for the Mexican League, was back here today with a new set of ideas.

Fed up with the baseball setup in Mexico, Roy said he is ready to "talk it over" with the Brooklyn organization.

Penguins, Legion Fastball Victors

Action continued in the men's and women's Senior "B" fastball leagues last night, with most games being cut short by rain.

Outhitting their opponents 15 to 11, Penguin Cafe chalked up a 9-5 win over Spencers in a "B" Division game. Kaye was the winning pitcher in the five-inning affair.

In the "A" Section, Canadian Legion scored singletons in the first and fourth innings while holding Dominion Meat Market scoreless for a 2-0 victory. Umpire Tommy Woods called the game after seven frames.

Spencers' girls were out in front, 8-6, at the end of another abbreviated contest with Civil Service. Six cantos was all the rain would permit at Central Park.

Out at Sidney, Victoria Box & Paper's "A" Division women's team defeated Sidney, 10-8, by getting all their runs in the sixth inning of their seven-frame game.

The junior game between Esquimalt Crusaders and Page Cleaners was called in the fourth, and ruled "no contest."

Harness Racing Coming Back to It's Own

The clock turns back as Dobbin pulls the two-wheeler around the new Maywood Oval, which had its premiere June 6. Shown here are Pearl Harbor, left, driven by Harry Fitzpatrick, and Spencer Volo, driven by R. C. (Doc) Flannery, taking a warmup spin. There will be 33 nights of racing with pari-mutuel betting.

Mexican Team Captures First Singles Matches

MONTREAL, June 13 (CP)—Canada's chances of a Davis Cup victory over Mexico appeared no larger than the head of a pin tonight in the light of two singles defeats in the opening day of play. The Canadians — Brendan Macken and Henri Rochon—failed to win a set against Mexico's Vega brothers—Armando and Rolando.

The brothers, who look alike and play alike, carried similarity to the extent that each lost the same number of games to his Canadian opponent. Rolando took Macken into camp 6-4, 6-2, 7-5, while Armando simply turned the score around to beat Rochon, 7-5, 6-2, 6-4.

The Mexicans are favored to clinch the series tomorrow when the Vega brothers take on Macken and Laird Watt, captain of the Canadian team. If the Mexicans win in the doubles as expected, the two singles matches scheduled for Saturday would be in the nature of a formality.

Macken had a better chance than Rochon to capture a set from the Mexicans. He came out battling in the third set to run up a 4-0 lead in games and a 40-0 poin lead in the fifth game on his own service.

But Rolando Vega started a drive that won him the fifth game and produced a 5-4 lead before Macken finally could break through for another game. The Mexican then ran off the next two games.

Double faults proved costly to Macken, who offended in that respect on seven occasions with two of the miscues coming at stages that meant game for the Mexican.

Rochon served up his hottest tennis in the first set. The 22-year-old French-Canadian appeared to have his opponent baffled at times with his southpaw slants with the result that he led at 4-3 and again at 5-4. But Armando, like his brother, always appeared to have something in reserve and he called on that backlog to take the set.

Some of the zip appeared to go out of Rochon's game in the second set, and he was able to win his service on only one occasion. However, the 130-pound southpaw pulled his game together for the third set, with games following service all the way until the Mexican broke through to make it 5-4. Vega took the match point on his own service.

The recently strengthened Oak Bay Cricket Club will be out to hand the first-place Five C's their first defeat of the season this Saturday when the two teams meet at the Beacon Hill pitch.

A win for Oak Bay will move them up into a tie for top place with the pace-setting Five C's. Captain George Payne, of the latter team, however, is confident of still another victory for his eleven, as he plans to field his strongest team of the year.

Albions and Royal Canadian Navy will meet at Macdonald Park on the same afternoon, the winner moving out of the cellar position in the four-team league.

Both games will start promptly at 2:15 p.m.

Five C's—George Payne, captain; Tommy Harper, C. Pugh, Jack Payne, George Hepworth, Percy Shrimpton, A. Attwell, A. Griffin, G. Petch, T. Parkin, "Duke" Van Druten, D. Sharpe reserve.

Jo Jo White Seattle Boss Trade Ramsey

SEATTLE, Wash., June 13 (AP)—Joyner (Jo Jo) White, popular former Seattle Rainiers' player and big league star, has been obtained from the Sacramento Solons of the Pacific Coast League to manage the Rainiers, Vice-President Roscoe (Torchy) Torrance announced today.

The deal was a player trade by which Bill Ramsey, Rainiers centrefielder and team's leading hitter, will go to Sacramento in exchange for White. The Rainiers were also compelled to buy up Ramsey's contract with the Boston Braves, as Ramsey was here from Boston on option.

White succeeded William (Bill) Skiff, Rainiers manager the past five years who was fired early in the week after refusing the request of Owner Emil Sick to resign. The Rainiers are in the league cellar and returned from a California trip this week after losing nine of 11 games.

"The deal and the purchase of Ramsey's contract involves a substantial amount," Torrance said.

Frisco Edges Portland, 6-5

PORTLAND, June 13 (CP)—The San Francisco Seals came from behind to nip the Portland Beavers, 6-5, in a 12-inning Pacific Coast League baseball thriller here tonight.

The win gave San Francisco a 2 to 1 edge in the series. Portland gained the lead in a big five-run fourth inning and held it until the ninth, when the Seals tied the count at 5-all.

Louis Looks Better Plans Early Finish

Physician Says Champ Physically Fit—Conn Impressive in Vicious Workout

POMPTON LAKES, N.J., June 13 (AP)—Both heavyweight champion Joe Louis and his personal physician, Dr. Clarence Hogans, gave the opposition a tough going-over before a large and distinguished audience today.

Joe slammed five sparring mates freely and looked well.

While Joe was pumshing his partners, Dr. Hogans took a few verbal pokes at Dr. Vincent Nardiello, the Boxing Commission sawbones who said after Tuesday's workout the champion's blood pressure was jumping around like a mountain goat.

"I can honestly say that Louis is physically fit," Hogans declared.

The crowd, which included former heavyweight champions Jack Dempsey and Jim Braddock, could detect little wrong with the big negro's condition, though both Jim and Jack seemed to think he looked a trifle on the slow side toward the end of the seven rounds of boxing.

Braddock picked Conn to win some time ago, but Dempsey hasn't yet named his choice.

There isn't much doubt that Louis looks slow in comparison with Conn, but what some of the observers appear to overlook is that the two men have sparring partners of vastly different calibre. Conn is boxing preliminary boys while Louis is working himself into condition against such main eventers as Al Hoosman and Jimmy Bell.

It was plain from today's workout that Joe was just talking when he said he was training to go 15 rounds and outbox Conn, if necessary. He is getting ready to try to tag Billy before the sixth round.

GREENWOOD LAKE, N.J., June 13 (AP)—The same doctors who took a grave view of Joe Louis' physical condition today gave out rave notices on Billy Conn. Their opinion was endorsed by two former heavyweight champions, on hand to watch the Pittsburgh pretty boy go through a savage six-round drill.

The former champs, Jack Dempsey and Jim Braddock, saw a "mean" Conn batter a trio of sparmates all over the place.

Braddock picked Billy to dethrone Joe next Wednesday.

The New York State Athletic Commission doctors—William Walker and Vincent Nardiello—gave Conn their final pre-fight check for the commission, just as they did to Louis two days ago, when they discovered that after Joe finished his workout his blood pressure went far higher than expected.

Dr. Walker stated flatly "I don't remember any fighter in a long time with a blood pressure as stable as Billy's."

It was the worst day of the training grind for sparmates Mickey McAvoy, Jimmy Smith and Mike Belluscio. Conn turned on all his offensive "steam" and, featuring a left hook that raised lumps, all but floored Smith and shook Belluscio.

DEFEND GOLF BROOCHES

Mrs. J. H. Todd and Mrs. M. Todd-Finney, of the Victoria Golf Club, will defend the E. D. Todd Ladies' Brooches against Miss M. McKenzie-Grieve and Mrs. W. S. Smith, of the Uplands Golf Club, on Sunday, June 16.

The match will commence at 1:30 p.m. at the Victoria Golf Club.

Snead, Penna Share Lead In U.S. Open

CLEVELAND, June 13 (AP)—Sam Snead, who has been a front-runner in this tournament before, and Tony Penna, a dark horse, shot sub-par 69's today to set the pace in the first round of the first postwar United States open golf championship.

Three under par for the opening round of the 72-hole test, Snead and Penna showed the way to 170 starters.

The Canterbury Golf Club's course holds record-making and heart-wrecking memories for Snead. It was here, in the 1940 open championship, that the Hot Springs, Va., shotmaker fired a first round 67 that stands in the records as the lowest opening-day score in the history of the 46-year-old championship. He wound up that tournament with an 81, the highest score for the day, and a tie for 16th place.

Snead's 67 here six years ago gave him a two-stroke lead on the field, but the lead he shared today with the 38-year-old Penna of Cincinnati, was a margin of one stroke. A shot behind the pair were two tournament veterans, Mike Turnesa of White Plains, N.Y., and 1944 P.G.A. champion Bob Hamilton of Chicago.

Eight players, including Byron Nelson, 1939 open champion and present P.G.A. titlist who shares top favorite honors with Ben Hogan to win this one, had one-under-par 71's.

Hogan, among 10 players who matched par, was out in 35, one under regulation figures for the first nine, but had driving and putting trouble on the 14th and 18th and slipped to an incoming 37.

This May Help

First used by Charles "Chick" Evans, veteran American golfer, in the British amateur golf championship, the above club with the unorthodox grip is the latest in golfing circles. It is obviously intended to do away with the traditional overlapping grip.

Annual City Tennis Tourney To Be Staged June 29-July 6

President E. E. N. McCallum of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club has announced that the Victoria City Lawn Tennis championships will be held on the courts of the Victoria Club from June 29 to July 6.

The local club will again sponsor five open events—ladies' and mens' singles and doubles and mixed doubles. Flights will be run off in the singles events only for those defeated in early round play. The popular annual event is expected to draw a large entry this year.

McCallum also announced that Gerard Clute, well-known tennis instructor in the Pacific Northwest, has been appointed general manager and club professional for the coming season.

Clute, now a permanent resident in Victoria, is a graduate of the Howard Kinsey School in San Francisco. He has been official coach for the B.C.L.T.A. and the leading Vancouver clubs for the past twelve years. Organization is at present under way where private and group instructions will be given.

Players who wish to secure entry forms for the city championship matches may do so by phoning Mr. Clute at Beacon 1923, or by calling at Hocking & Forbes Sporting Goods, Douglas Street.

Veterans With Bellingham Bells

ANDY PADOVAN

TY HOFEDITZ

TWO real veterans who will be here with the powerful Bellingham Bells tomorrow when they clash with a Victoria all-star club in a pair of exhibition baseball games. Still under the managership of canny Joe Martin, the Washington nine boasts one of their strongest aggregations in years and have a season's record of 18 wins and a single loss. Included among their triumphs is a victory over the highly-rated Metheny-Bacon club. Dick Plank, left-hander, currently rated the top hurler in the state; Adrian Jorissen, former Washington State College fastballer; veteran Jim McGhie and Hank Heakey comprise a strong pitching staff. Padovan and Hofeditz will hold forth behind the plate and at first base, respectively. Bob Nunamaker, Cliff Gaffney and Walt Richardson, a home run threat, round out a smooth-functioning infield. All are returned servicemen. Sid Van Sinderan, with the Vancouver Capilanos earlier in the year, and the three Zenders, Dick, Bernie and Pete, are available for outfield chores. Opposing them will be a strong Victoria nine featuring capable pitching with Tommy Musgrave, Bill Prior, Jimmy Dumeah, Tony Maze and Stan Curry ready to go. Games will be played at 2:30 and 8 p.m.

4 CARDS OF THANKS

Mrs. W. J. Scott wishes to express her heartfelt thanks and appreciation to all her friends for their sympathy, especially to Dr. J. H. Moore, the sisters and nurses of St. Joseph's Hospital for their sincere kindness shown during the loss of a dear and loving husband.

5 IN MEMORIAM

GRAHAM—In loving memory of my dear mother, who left this world two years ago today.

Two dear bright eyes, a tender smile,
A loving heart that knew no guile,
Deep trust in God, that all was right,
Her joy to make some other bright;
If sick or suffering one she knew,
Some gentle act of love she'd do.
No thought of self, but of the other,
I know He said, "Well done, Dear Mother."

— Ever remembered by her only son, Alan.

Instructed by the owner, who is retiring from business, we are privileged to offer one of the best greenhouse propositions to be found in Saanich. About five acres excellent land with southern aspect, good soil and natural drainage. There are seven greenhouses, all in good condition, with an adequate hot water heating plant. The stock includes thousands of cyclamen and hydrangea plants, daffodil bulbs and other flowers. Everything necessary for running a prosperous business is here and the owner has no difficulty whatever in disposing of everything he grows. The bungalow-type home of six rooms is most attractive and has city water and electric light, beautiful hardwood floors, fireplace, cement basement, furnace, etc. Other buildings include large chicken house, cottage for help and garage. We HAVE no hesitation in recommending this as one of the best paying propositions of its kind on the Island and one with wonderful possibilities of even further development. Wightman Cup Tennis Play Starts Today

LONDON, June 13 (AP).—Britain and the United States resume their war-interrupted Wightman Cup tennis matches tomorrow, with Kay Stammers Menzies promising the home side will give the American girls a jolly good run.

British tennis enthusiasts acknowledge chances of regaining the trophy, which the United States has held since 1931, are remote. But Kay sees it a big brighter.

"The Americans are a very tough proposition," she said. "But our girls, however, are all in splendid trim, and we shall give them a jolly good run."

The opening singles match tomorrow will send Pauline Betz, of Los Angeles, against Jean Nicoll Bostock. In the other singles, Margaret Osborne, of San Francisco, will play Mrs. Menzies, and in doubles Misses Betz and Doris Hart will meet Britain's highly-rated doubles combination of Betty Passingham and Molly Lincoln.

O.C. Cricket

LONDON, June 13 (Reuters).—Fine weather today gave British cricketers a break and on drying wickets it was a bowlers' day. In county matches, Leicestershire, losing five wickets for 30 runs, fought hard against Surrey to avoid having to follow on and bat again. They were saved by one run—scored by Jackson, who hit 44, his best innings this season.

Derbyshire, wanting 152 to avoid an innings defeat, adopted bold tactics against Worcestershire, but could not stave off defeat. Yorkshire batsman, Phillip Gibb, punished the Warwickshire bowling, hitting his first century of the season.

According to Culbertson

The declarer in today's deal had two different lines of play for his six no-trump contract and fortunately for himself, made the correct choice.

South, dealer.
East-West vulnerable.

NORTH

SOUTH
♠ A 10 9
♥ A 8 4
♦ A 9 3 2
♣ Q 7 2

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 NT	Pass	3 ♦	Pass
3 NT	Pass	6 NT	Pass
Pass	Pass

South was the merest shade light with his opening one no trump, and North could not be blamed for feeling that a slam would be almost a laydown. As a matter of fact, the final contract was a sound investment.

West opened the heart jack, and although declarer was not sanguine about the lead being from the king, there seemed to be no point in leaving the queen blank in dummy, and he, therefore, put it up. East covered and declarer won. Five diamond tricks and four spades were then run off, declarer discarding two hearts while East let go two hearts and a low club.

West found himself in more serious discarding difficulties, and with obvious reluctance he let go the 8-4 of clubs (in that order) and three hearts.

Now dummy was reduced to one low heart and two clubs, while declarer himself had his original three clubs. Obviously if the club king lay in the East hand, declarer would have to play the ace and low from dummy, but it was equally obvious that if this had been the true state of affairs, East would have been guilty of a frightful error in discarding his hearts and keeping nothing but clubs. Having no reason to feel that East had made such a mistake, declarer made the far sounder play of throwing West in with the heart and playing him for the club king. West's forced club return, of course, gave South the contract.

Feature Handicap At Longacres Draws 11 Entries

SEATTLE, June 13 (AP). — The $5,000 Longacres Inaugural Handicap Saturday shaped up today in an 11-horse event, although entries will not be closed until tomorrow morning.

It appeared probable, also that the six-furlong opener would be run in the mud, with rain soaking the track today and the forecast indicating more dampness tomorrow.

Silver Treason, last year's winner, was among likely starters. Others included Antelope, Last Roll, Super Valley, Bold Impulse, Trace Heart, Pardo, Happy Note, Greenock's maid, Tudo and Seekonk.

Sir Jeffrey, a standout in last year's campaign, was expected to pass the Inaugural and shoot for the $5,000 Tacoma Handicap Sunday, a mile event.

Sweden Takes Lead

STOCKHOLM, June 13 (AP). — Sweden's two-man Davis Cup team of Lennart Strand and Torsten Johansson took a 2-1 lead over Belgium in their European zone semi-final round match today by turning back Philippe Washer and Pierre Geelhand in doubles, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4.

The opening singles matches yesterday were split.

Junior Ball Clubs Will Play Tonight

Coach "Barney" Barnswell's Pitzer & Nex club will make their debut tonight in the Victoria Athletics' Junior Baseball League when they stack up against Harry Youson's U.C.T. nine at Athletic Park.

The game will be the second in the newly-inaugurated loop, U.C.T. having won the first by defeating Douglas Hotel last Tuesday night. Game time is 6:30 p.m.

You can help settle the strike; instruct your M.L.A. to demand Government action. ...

Frank Dasso Sold To Hollywood Club

CINCINNATI, June 13 (AP).—Disposal of two right-handed pitchers, Nate Andrews and Frank Dasso, was announced last night by Cincinnati Reds of the National League.

Andrews, whose major league record also includes service with the Cleveland Indians, St. Louis Cardinals and Boston Braves, had been released unconditionally.

Dasso had been sold to Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League.
